

Beyond the Refugee experience and dealing with the new legal system

WHEN 18 October 2010

TIME 9.30 am - 12.30 pm

VENUE Lionel Murphy Centre
360 Queen St
Melbourne

Victorian Legal Assistance Forum would like to invite staff from the legal sector to an interesting panel discussion and dialogue with community members from newly emerging refugee communities. We hope this session will support the staff to develop better understanding of the newly emerging communities and the difficulties they have navigating the legal system.

Launch of the Burmese Legal Needs Research Report developed by Anita Smith, Footscray Community Legal Centre

Katie Fraser, Recipient of Victoria Law Foundation Fellowship, shares her experience and research report findings. She visited few refugee camps and undertook her placement at AMES Settlement Services.

For more information and RSVP contact Rachna Muddagouni via email, rachnam@vla.vic.gov.au by the 14 October

Limited to 60 places