

Exploring collaborative service delivery options

DATE 31 May 2010

TIME 1.30pm to 4.00pm

VENUE Lionel Murphy Centre, 360 Queen Street, Melbourne

VLAFF invites staff who are responsible for planning innovative service delivery models from both legal and non-legal sector to participate in this forum. Excellent opportunity to share ideas, discuss the challenges and opportunities that arise from inter agency collaboration.

Key Note Speaker

Mary Anne Noone

(Associate Professor, School of Law, and co-ordinator of the School's Clinical Legal Education Program and the Public Interest Law Postgraduate Program, Latrobe University)

Panel Discussion 1 Outreach and innovation in the CLC Sector

Speakers (followed by question time)

Peter Noble, Principal Solicitor, Loddon Campaspe Community Legal Centre

James Farrell, Manager, Homeless Person's Legal Clinic

Robin Inglis, Executive Officer, Fitzroy Legal Service

Panel Discussion 2 Innovative one practice approach at VLA

Speakers (followed by question time)

Saul Holt, Director, Criminal Law Service, VLA

Judy Small, Director, Family Youth & Children's Law Services

Kristen Hilton, Director, Human Rights and Civil Law Service

Following the panel discussion the participants will be invited to participate in open forum discussion

RSVP Rachna Muddagouni at rachnam@vla.vic.gov.au by the 24 May 2010.
Limited to only 50 participants.